Attack Started Against Department
of Conservation When Bill to
Abolish it is Presented

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 5.—An attack was launched against the department of conservation in the Indiana legislature today.

Representative John W. Kitch, democrat, of Plymouth, introduced a bill which would abolish the department, which is composed of separate divisions of forestry, entomology, geology and other divisions.

Many factions have struck at the conservation department as "another useless commission" and the measure represents the culmination of their efforts. The department was endorsed by the Republican Editorial Association in a resolution and it is known that Governor McCray regards its work highly.

An important step in prohibition was taken by the house when it adopted a resolution presented by Representative J. Glenn Harris to combine all pending legislation, seeking to make dry laws more strict, into one bill and dispose of it as a special order of business Thursday. Several measures along the lines of more stringent prohibition have received senate approval and are now awaiting action in the house. Among them are two that would make a thirty day sentence for bootlegging compulsory on first offense and require imprisonment of persons who operate whiskey stills.

Every milk dealer in Indiana would be required to pay and charge uniform prices under provisions of a bill introduced by Representative Murray of Helmer. The measure was the outgrowth of an anti-trust suit filed against dealers of dairy products in Indiana, by Attorney General U. S. Lesh, a decision in which was handed down today.

Representative Wysong of Indianapolis introduced a bill to make the Indiana National guard laws conform with the national defense act.

The house was in a short morning session. The senate did not convene.

HOLDS THERE IS NO MILK TRUST IN STATE

Judge Linn Hay Rules Against Attorney General in Suit For Receivership of 35 Defendants

MILK PRICES NOT TOO HIGH

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 5.—Efforts of Attorney General U. S. Lesh to break a "milk trust" alleged to exist in Indiana, failed today when Judge Linn Hay in superior court here decided in favor of thirty-five defendants of milk product companies.

The court decided that prices of milk and its products are not high in Indiana as compared with other states.

The state through the attorney general had asked an injunction to prevent carrying on an alleged conspiracy entered into between the companies in restraint of trade and to boost prices, forfeiture of franchise and an appointment of receivers to wind up their affairs.

According to the decision, the state failed to prove charges that the companies through the Indiana manufacturers of dairy products, a central organization, designed to restrain and control products distribution and sale of milk, cream and other products and to arbitrarily control prices at an unreasonably high level.

"Restriction of products has been a great evil in most combinations," the judge said, "but milk products in Indiana have been increased."

REMONSTRATORS ARE HEARD

Evidence on City Street Paving
Will be Presented to Commission

The hearing on the remonstrance against the paving of parts of Harrison and Eighth streets under the three mile road law was heard in the court house Saturday by Walter Bridges, a representative of the state board of tax commissioners. He will present the evidence to the members of the commission and a decision is expected within two weeks. The hearing began at ten o'clock and was not concluded until two o'clock.

The remonstrance was sustained once before on the plea of the remonstrators that road building material was too high. It is proposed to cement Harrison street from First to Eighth and Eighth street from Harrison to the Fort Wayne road.

Toughest Weather Atlantic Has To Offer Recalls To Doughboys How Tough War Really Is

(Copyright, 1923, by United Press)
Aboard S. S. St. Mihiel, (500 miles from home), Feb. 5.—(By Radio)—Plowing through stormy seas and buffeted by wintry gales, the transport St. Mihiel which took so many doughboys over to France for the great war, today is bringing the last of them home.

Wednesday, if all goes well, the St. Mihiel will slide into dock at Savannah, in the teeth of the stormiest welcome the old south can produce, one that promises to make the blast of the Atlantic seem a mere whisper.

The Eighth Infantry, combat troops, Colonel Walter T. Bates commanding will be recipient of Georgia's enthusiastic welcome home. The enthusiasm will be reciprocal.

After the pleasant days in the sunny Rhineland, a week of the roughest weather the Atlantic had in store has just recalled to the last of the A. E. F., how tough war really is. As for the German wives and the one German mother-in-law that the boys are bringing back, their discomfort is only compensated by their eagerness to see the land of the free.

Twenty-four little German-American kiddies, too young to be sea sick are perhaps the least uncomfortable of the St. Mihiel's passengers.

Aside from the weather, which was exceedingly rough for two days in particular the home voyage the A. of O. has been pleasant and without incident. Nine hundred and eight officers and men make up the contingent.

COMMENT ON WHAT MEN SAY OF JESUS

W. M'Clean Work Refers to Views of Common People Regarding Christ's Life on Earth

PREACHES 3 SERMONS SUNDAY

Largest Audience Which Has Attended U. P. Special Services
Present Sunday Night

Before the largest audience that has yet been in attendance upon the services, the Rev. W. M'Clean Work of Richmond preached Sunday night at the First United Presbyterian church on the subject, "What Men Say About Jesus". It was the third address by the speaker for the day. In the morning he spoke on "God's Daily Press" and in the afternoon gave a patriotic sermon lecture on "The Hand of God In American History."

Mr. Work said in part, Sunday night: "Tonight I would have you think with me of what men say about Jesus, what they do not say about him and what they say they do not understand. Not men of this time, not theologians, not historians but the man on the street today."

"They say first of all that he was a man of perfect poise, unmoved alike by the flattery of the triumphal entry and insults of Pilate's judgement hall."

"They say he did not write a volume and that his record would not fill more than a modern pamphlet and yet no man has ever had one tithe of the influence upon the human race."

"They say he has a universal appeal. Everyone knows that Mohammed was for the Arab, Confucius for the Chinese, Zoroaster for the Hindu, but this Jesus has attracted all men of all times and conditions and races and nations."

"They say he grows larger as men draw nearer to him. Pilate says I find no fault in him. Even his enemies say that he speaks as one having authority and the common people heard him gladly."

"They say he had power to foretell the future. They say he had power to change life."

"And they do not say that he ever sinned, that he leaned upon an organization financial, politically or military, that he showed any signs of being in a hurry although he had but three years for his earthly ministry, that he ever made a misstatement, that he worked his life toward a dramatic climax."

"And they say there are many things about him we cannot understand. We cannot fathom a man who has all power under God and yet does not have a cent to his name or home, they cannot understand one who had power from a boy's scanty lunch to feed thousands and yet would be so frugal as to gather up the fragments. They have no explanation of how a man of holy life should be a friend of sinners or a man of fine sensibilities should surround himself with rude fisher folk when he might have had Nicodemus the ruler or the rich Joseph of Arimathea."

"These are the things the man on the street is saying about Jesus but he is asking, 'Whom say ye that I am?'"

Tonight Mr. Work will preach on, "What Christianity Is?" The services begin at 7:30.

CENTER TOWNSHIP LEADS THE COUNTY

Makes Best Record in Attendance
During First Semester, Scoring
99 Per Cent

AVERAGE IN COUNTY 96.8%

County Board of Education Meets
This Afternoon to Discuss Commencement Dates

In the twelve consolidated schools of Rush county, the Center township school held the record for attendance during the first semester, when 99 percent was scored, according to figures compiled by County school superintendent, B. D. Farthing, for the first school semester.

The general average for the county for consolidated schools was 96.8 percent. The Moscow school in reality made about as good a showing on account of the larger number of pupils enrolled, with 177 as against 113 in the Center school. Neither school had any tardies, nor did the Rushville township (Webb) school.

The county board of education was holding their February meeting this afternoon in the superintendent's office, and some of the things which were to be discussed were commencement dates and speakers; getting a line on teachers for next year; considering some points in regard to elementary classification of schools in the county; consideration of the school libraries of the county; reading circle books for the schools and music memory contest.

The report for the first school semester, shows that there are 2079 pupils in the consolidated schools, which includes the grades and high schools of the twelve townships.

Gings ranks lowest of the schools with a percent of 90.8, but even at that the figures for attendance are above most of the schools in the state this year.

The Moscow, Center and Webb schools made the best records for tardiness, as neither school lost any time in tardies. Milroy topped the list with tardies when 89 pupils were late and caused the school to lose 1160 minutes. There were a total of 283 tardies in the schools during the semester, with a combined total of 4,067 minutes, or over 67 hours time.

The Carthage school has the largest enrollment with 300, and Milroy is close second with 289. The smallest number enrolled in a consolidated school is at Center and Gings, which have 113 pupils each.

The following table is compiled to give information as sent out in the attendance report for the consolidated schools and a report to be published tomorrow will include the one room and two room schools which are in this county.

FIRE FROM COAL OIL STOVE

Discovered In Attic At Walter Hubbard's Home Sunday

Fire, believed to have been caused from a coal oil heating stove in an attic room at the residence of Walter Hubbard, 223 West Second street, did damage to the extent of possibly $150 Sunday shortly before noon.

The blaze was discovered eating its way underneath the flooring in the attic, and the upper part of the house was filled with smoke. The stove had been extinguished, but it is thought that a leak may have caused the fire. The rug and interior of the room were damaged. The fire department answered a telephone call, and the blaze was extinguished with chemicals.

FRENCH FOLLOW BRITISH

Leave Conference on Near East Affairs and Italians May do Likewise Tuesday

Lausanne, Feb. 5.—Richard Washburn Childe, American observer at the Lausanne conference, brought to bear all possible influence upon the Turkish delegation today to persuade them to sign the peace treaty.

There was some optimism among secretaries and observers that the parley might be resumed through the American ambassador's efforts, but the French followed example of the British and left Lausanne after Ismet Pasha had definitely refused to agree to the allies terms.

Ambassador Childe offered mediation and was in conference with Turkish delegates.

Ismet Pasha, Turk delegate, also attempted peaceful maneuvers, seeking to avoid responsibility for the breakdown that followed his refusal to sign the peace treaty presented by the allies.

Marquis Curzon, head of the British delegation, went to Paris last night, quitting the parley after the allies and American observer Childe had pleaded vainly with the Turks to sign.

The Italian delegation, headed by Garroni, was the only one remaining, but was expected to leave Tuesday. It was one of the chief tasks of saying the Mudania armistice pact will remain in effect "until Lausanne ends". He pretends not to recognize that the British and French withdrawal is tantamount to collapse of the conference.

Still arguing details of the proposed treaty, the Turk insisted allied proposals regarding foreign judiciary are unacceptable because they retain the spirit of the capitulations. It was one of the chief tasks of the present parley to find a substitute for the capitulations.

The Italians gave indications they would follow the British example and bring the conference to an end, letting Turkey take full responsibility in the eyes of the world if trouble in the Near East ensued.

CINCINNATI MAN TO TALK

Estate Is Dismissed

The February term of court got under way this morning, and several matters were disposed of when the docket was called. The jury will probably not be used until Friday, and there is a possibility of their services not being needed until next week.

The claim amounting to $15,436.60 filed by William E. Watson, against D. E. Barnett, administrator of the estate of John J. Veatch, was dismissed this morning by the plaintiff.

The Republican Printing Company, an Ohio corporation, also dismissed their suit on an account against D. W. Nolan, in which the plaintiff's demand was for $50.

The case of the United States tire company against Walter T. Cummins of Falmouth, a suit on an account demanding $1,000, also was dismissed this morning in the court.

The case of Fannie Stonecipher against William McClery, et al., a complaint to quiet title, was heard, and the defendant defaulted. The court awarded the plaintiff judgement on the petition, and the land was given a good title.

In a divorce suit pending of Oakley Sampson against Mabella, the defendant had filed a petition for allowance and attorney fees and this morning by agreement the plaintiff will pay $5 a week allowance, and also $15 for defense's attorney fees.

Another case filed recently of the Myers Brothers Company against Thomas G. Kelly, a complaint on a note demanding $125, was dismissed by the plaintiff in court this morning.

Several other matters of minor importance such as filing answers, cross complaints and various motions, came before the court, and most of the first day's work in open court was finished by noon today.

MERCURY LOWEST FOR YEAR

Warmer weather is in sight, according to the prediction of the weather bureau, which says that a light snow will probably follow with the rising temperature and cloudy weather tonight. The coldest Saturday night was 4 degrees above zero, according to Elwood Kirkwood, at Maunzy, and the coldest reached last night was six above.

The mercury had a tendency to go upward today, although the wind was chilly and disagreeable. The drop in temperature began Saturday, and the last two days have been the coldest this year, as January was one of the mildest on record.

The report on the prediction for warmer weather states that this area will be mostly cloudy tonight and Tuesday, with warmer weather, followed by possibly light snow. The lowest tonight is predicted not to fall below 18 degrees.

THE SPOTTED POLAND CHINAS THE OUT-CROSS BREED OF HOGS

By Irene Reeve

The blood lines of SPOTTED POLAND CHINA of today are made up from animals recorded in the present day Poland China Records, from other animals conforming to our requirements in description, supposed to carry a greater or lesser percent of original Poland China blood, and from a pair of hogs imported from England, known as Gloucester Old Spots. Poland Chinas are descendants from a hog produced by the mixing of at least six separate and distinct breeds by the pioneer farmers of Ohio.

The common hog that roamed at will through the almost unbroken forests in those days, furnished the foundation from which was developed what was later known as the "Warren County Hog".

The sturdy farmers of this section wished to develop their common hog and lost no opportunity to cross them with other breeds whenever they could secure one by importation or from other States in the East.

The "Russian Hog" was one of the breeds to be brought into this section, and history tells us he was a large, white hog, rather coarse, with great length and very prolific.

Another was the "Byfield" which came from Massachusetts, and which was also a large pure white hog.

Just about a century ago the first importation of a breed called "Big China" was brought into this section of Ohio. They are described as a hog mostly white in color, but having some sandy and black spots. They were good feeders, matured very early, and being prepotent impressed these characteristics on their off-spring.

It is also known that a number of individuals of a breed called "Irish Graziers" which was a reddish or sandy colored hog, were brought and used.

An importation of "Big English Berkshires" was made into this territory about the year 1835 and it is quite certain that all of the black, or practically all, in the Poland China Hogs of today came from crossing the "Big England Berkshires" with the "Warren County Hog."

From this time on no other breeds were introduced, but we already have the blood of at least six separate and distinct breeds coursing through the veins of this wonderful "Warren County Hog" when about thirty years later, in 187, the National Swine Breeders' convention met in Indianapolis and gave these hogs the official name of "Poland Chinas".

They were in great demand, and immediately following this official meeting at least three record associations were organized to record the Poland China.

What has happened in the past forty-two years is common knowledge to many but it is a very interesting story and an object lesson in live stock breeding, of great value to follow the history of this hog, in whose veins was the blood of so many different breeds, which naturally made him a "bundle of possibilities" when he was scattered throughout the country into the hands of so many men differing widely in ideals and purposes and surrounded by such great differences in environment, such a climate, food, and range conditions in the East, West, North and South.

It is the object of this little article to merely state facts and not discuss the merits or demerits of the Poland-China over any other breeds or hogs or any particular type or color of the Poland-China over any other.

It is a fact however, that in the Corn Belt these hogs which were originally a large, black and white spotted, heavy boned prolific hog of considerable length, were gradually molded into a smaller and shorter and more quickly maturing type by selection and the heavy feeding of grain in feed lots to the exclusion of the natural range conditions which supplied an abundance of protein in the way of grasses, roots and nuts of the forest, so conducive of a larger growth. This not only reduced the size of the Poland-China, but as they grew smaller they became less prolific, until in many localities there were so many complaints that it grew into an almost continual protest by the farmers that the breeders were getting the Poland-China bred down to fine.

This criticism, oft repeated in many places during the last ten or fifteen years served to set men thinking, and some of the far seeing ones in many localities who preferred the original type of the larger Spotted and more prolific Poland have set about in earnest to reproduce and preserve their favorite.

Breeders almost everywhere have emphasized the fact that there is a general tendency throughout the country to return to the old type of Poland by calling attention in their advertisements and otherwise to the medium type to the large-type and to Spotted Poland Chinas, a distinction never made until within the last few years. Although there are some breeders of recorded Polands in other States who have preserved the type of the original big boned, spotted hog to a greater or less degree, such is not the fact in Indiana, and in most cases the herds of Spotted-Polands in Indiana have been preserved and reproduced from this old type of hogs, some of which had not been kept recorded. There are a number of well known breeders in Central Indiana who have been breeding these hogs to the exclusion of all others for many years, and they have become so popular and widely known that in the opinions of most men in this section they are not only superior as the most prolific pork producer and all around farmer's hog, to any other breed, but also to any other type of Polands. This gave rise to a general demand for an organization to record and push the big-boned prolific Spotted-Poland as a separate and distinct family of hog which resulted in the organization of The Record Association, which was incorporated under the laws of Indiana.

In recording the foundation animals, there were two hogs imported from England, known in that country as "Gloucester Old Spots". They were recorded under the name of the King and Queen of England and they have added a wonderful stimulant to the Spotted Poland China breed.

FIRST, it gave a distinct appearance of energy, vim, up-and-doing all the time, and a soft, glossy coat which is very attractive.

SECOND, they added 100 percent to the breeders type, long body, not so much spring of rib, high off the ground, resulting in big litters and larger pigs.

THIRD, it injected into the herds of oldtime breeders new blood of the type he had long had in his mind that he wanted.

FOURTH you will please remember this is the first new blood or the first out-cross that has been made in the Poland China family since 1835. Now then, since the Poland Chinas have been bred all these years without an out-cross with a minutes' thought you can see what a wonderful stimulant this new and fresh blood would be in their veins.

The Spotted-Polands are very prolific, farrowing from nine to fifteen pigs as a rule. They usually weigh from 400 to 800 pounds at maturity. Evenness of litters, or the absence of runts is a matter of common knowledge, and frequent comment. The mothers are great sucklers, the pigs, exceedingly thrifty and very rapid growers. Being very heavy weighers their weight is often, or almost always under guessed. They have good length, heavy bone, with rather a large ear and tail and a little coarser hair than the smaller types, and by reason of the contrast in color of the black and white which makes up their coat they make an unusually attractive appearance in the feed lot and never fail to attract attention.

The breeders of these great hogs have absolute confidence in their superiority and ability to win a foremost place wherever hogs are raised on real merit.

ROTH EXONERATED OF BLAME FOR ROBBERY

Attempt Will be Made to Gain Freedom For Orange Township Man Serving Sentence

ORPH GEORGE IN CONFESSION

Frank Roth, 17 years old, of Milroy, Rush county, sentenced in the Shelby circuit court for a term of 10 to 21 years' imprisonment in the Indiana reformatory, on a charge of assault and battery with intent to commit robbery, has been exonerated from all blame in the holdup and attempted robbery of Hayes Marshall at Blue Ridge, on Jan. 2, 1922, in a signed confession by Orph George, companion of Roth in the hold-up, who is also serving a sentence of 10 to 21 years in the ease.

Scores of names have been signed to a petition being circulated in Milroy and vicinity for the release of Roth from prison, as a result of the confession. At the time that Roth and George pleaded guilty to the charges the court refused to extend clemency to Roth, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roth, of Orange township, very prominent residents. Hundreds of petitions had been presented to the court for leniency in the case of Roth, but Judge Blair, contended his duty was to uphold the law and pass the heavy sentence.

Roth and George were both wounded in the attempted robbery, when Mr. Marshall opened fire with a revolver as they ordered him to hold up his hands. Mr. Marshall was closing his store in Blue Ridge, a short time after midnight on Sunday, Jan. 29, and he carried the proceeds from the day's business in a sack, which the hold-ups sought.

THE ROYAL LAW:—If ye fulfil the royal law according to the Scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well; but if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convicted of the law as transgressors.—James 2: 8, 9.

Opinions on Art Differ

Isadora Duncan is a revolutionist and is glad of it.

She is against prohibition and the world in general that lies west of Paris and Moscow.

She prefers to live in Russia than in the United States.

She says the capitalist newspapers ruined her tour and she had to borrow money to get back home.

This is the best recommendation for the good sense of the American people that we have read for some time.

If sentiment in America is such that a Red of Miss Duncan's stripe can not be successful on a tour in nude dances under the guise of art, there is a most wholesome atmosphere returning to the American stage.

If the people of the United States

are going to insist on improvement in the morals of those who entertain them, they should be applauded.

If Miss Duncan's dances are art, as she admits, then art is in for a hard winter. She says the people of this country don't want art, but fortunately our ideas of art differ.

Miss Duncan's dance was stopped in Indianapolis and incidentally our opinion of Mayor Shank has been raised since the Russian dancer expressed her real opinions when she started back to the land of Emma Goldman and Bill Haywood.

The Memorial Day Bill

It is doubtful if patriotism is tangible enough to permit of treatment by legislation. No man or woman will ever be more patriotic because of a law which says they shall be.

If the legislature passes a law prohibiting the annual 500 mile race at the Indianapolis automobile speedway, it will not erase the desire in the hearts of thousands of people to see the race. Without the attraction of a race on Memorial Day, it is improbable that any of those who patronize the race would attend a patriotic service.

So little would be gained by stopping the race. The impulse to attend would still be in the hearts of people who are in the habit of attending and who enjoys witnessing the contest.

Opponents of the auto derby have no particular objection to the event except that they view it as a desecration of the national holiday. It does not offend their sense of moral values. Their only complaint is that commercialized sport should not be permitted on the day set aside by the nation to honor the heroic dead.

Little would be accomplished towards the desired end—a deeper expression of feeling for those who sacrificed their lives for their country, by the passing of the law.

FIFTEEN YEARS
AGO TODAY

(Daily Republican, Feb. 5, 1908)

A veritable blizzard passed over Rushville Tuesday night and from eight o'clock on the sleet and snow fell in blowing sheets.

Among the many who were victims of falls today on the ice was City Marshall Price, who received quite a painful injury.

Democrats of Sixth district will hold a harmony banquet and talk-fest in this city tonight.

WEEKLY STORE NEWS
From ALLEN'S

Cheap foods are never worth what they cost. They are of no value as tissue builders—they merely fill you up.

Real economy in foods lies in buying goods that have nutritive value and possess a flavor that makes them palatable and enjoyable. There is no waste or extravagance in our groceries, the best foods cost no more than ordinary kinds when bought from us.

LOYALTY is not a one-sided flour. It is made to serve the whole circle of kitchen economy. Try it. We believe that you will find it better than the one you thought best.

We are receiving shipments of oysters every few days, solid pack, no water, sealed containers that guarantee their purity to the consumer.

Some folks have always objected to oleomargarine on account of the fact that it had to be colored. TINTED CHURNGOLD removes this objection, no artificial coloring is used, yet the color is practically the same as of creamery butter.

We have just cut another mammoth cheese. Last week we were asked by a salesman to write a letter to a grocer in another city telling him the number of mammoth cheese we sell each winter. The grocer had doubted the salesman's word when he told him; said it couldn't be done. Rush county folks know good cheese when they taste it.

THE ROYAL LAW:—If we fulfil the royal law according to the Scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself, ye do well; but if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convicted of the law as transgressors.—James 2: 8, 9.

Opinions on Art Differ

Isadora Duncan is a revolutionist and is glad of it.

She is against prohibition and the world in general that lies west of Paris and Moscow.

She prefers to live in Russia than in the United States.

She says the capitalist newspapers ruined her tour and she had to borrow money to get back home.

This is the best recommendation for the good sense of the American people that we have read for some time.

If sentiment in America is such that a Red of Miss Duncan's strip can not be successful on a tour in nude dances under the guise of art, there is a most wholesome atmosphere returning to the American stage.

If the people of the United States

are going to insist on improvement in the morals of those who entertain them, they should be applauded.

If Miss Duncan's dances are art, as she admits, then art is in for a hard winter. She says the people of this country don't want art, but fortunately our ideas of art differ.

Miss Duncan's dance was stopped in Indianapolis and incidentally our opinion of Mayor Shank has been raised since the Russian dancer expressed her real opinions when she started back to the land of Emma Goldman and Bill Haywood.

The Memorial Day Bill

It is doubtful if patriotism is tangible enough to permit of treatment by legislation. No man or woman will ever be more patriotic because of a law which says they shall be.

If the legislature passes a law prohibiting the annual 500 mile race at the Indianapolis automobile speedway, it will not erase the desire in the hearts of thousands of people to see the race. Without the attraction of a race on Memorial Day, it is improbable that any of those who patronize the race would attend a patriotic service.

So little would be gained by stopping the race. The impulse to attend would still be in the hearts of people who are in the habit of attending and who enjoys witnessing the contest.

Opponents of the auto derby have no particular objection to the event except that they view it as a desecration of the national holiday. It does not offend their sense of moral values. Their only complaint is that commercialized sport should not be permitted on the day set aside by the nation to honor the heroic dead.

Little would be accomplished towards the desired end—a deeper expression of feeling for those who sacrificed their lives for their country, by the passing of the law.

Change Made In State Tournament
Regionals, Local Victor Drawing
A Bye

TO HAVE ONLY 1 GAME TO PLAY

Conquerer Of Rushville Sectional
Will Meet Five From Hunting-
ington Sectional

A change has been made by the Indiana High School Athletic association in the details for the final rounds of play in the basketball tournament this spring, and the winners of two sectionals at Shelbyville and Rushville will be sent to Ft. Wayne for the regional, instead of at Bloomington, as heretofore arranged.

With 48 sections this year, it was decided to enlarge the number of regionals, and a third one was made at Ft. Wayne. It also was decided to send 18 teams to Lafayette and Ft. Wayne, leaving 12 teams at Bloomington. Two rounds of play will be made at the two northern districts, and one at Bloomington. On account of the uneven number at the northern districts, which would leave 9 teams after the first round, it was necessary to draw lots for the team drawing the bye and in this manner five teams will survive at Ft. Wayne and Lafayette and six at Bloomington, sending 16 teams to the state meet at Indianapolis.

It fell to the winner of the Rushville sectional to play the winner of the Huntington sectional in the last game at Ft. Wayne, and the winner of this game drew the bye, meaning that they will not play any more games at Ft. Wayne. At the Lafayette sectional, the winner at Anderson plays the winner at Valparaiso, and these teams drew the bye, meaning in all probability that Anderson will have only the one game to play in order to reach the state. At Bloomington, Vincennes has an easy game, and will no doubt reach the state.

ARLINGTON TO MEET SHELBYVILLE ELKS

Independent Five Coming For Game
Tuesday Night Regarded As One
Of Best In This Section

CURTAIN RAISER ARRANGED

The Arlington Athletic Club will meet the Shelbyville Elks Tuesday evening at Arlington. This game was moved up on account of the Fendales of Indianapolis, who were scheduled to play the Athletic club Thursday night, could not come as they play a tourney in Indianapolis. The Shelbyville Elks need no introduction to the basketball fans in this county as they know the Elks are considered superior to any independent team in this part of the state. The A. A. C's are fortunate in getting this team to play and are at a great deal of expense. They are urging that fans from the entire county turn out for this game.

The Shelbyville line up is practically assured to be R. Richardson, and W. Richardson, forwards; Coffman, center; Briggs, Harley and Hayes, guards. The Arlington team has been going good all season and defeated all teams from the surrounding community. One of the fastest games of the season seen at the Arlington gymnasium is expected on this night.

The A. A. C's are going into this game determined to defeat the Shelbyville team and Shelbyville will have to fight hard if they expect to overcome this kind of a spirit.

The curtain raiser will be played between Rushville Shamrocks and the Junior A. C's. This game will be called at 7:30 and the big game will start immediately afterward.

Firpo Coming For Big Money

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Feb. 5—Almost like "Tattered Tom", the poor little hero of the paper-back novel, who rose from an ash barrel to a palace, Luis Angel Firpo, South American giant is coming back to New York as somebody.

Just a year ago, Firpo slipped into New York from the Argentine looking for a meal. He thought he could fight and he wanted some of the big money he heard was being passed out to fighters in this country. Firpo wasn't known then. He couldn't get matches and his money was low, so he had to train in a cellar. Finally he got on a card in Jersey with Sailor Maixted and he got $150 for knocking out the Sailor.

That helped him a little and he got a $1,000 match with Joe McCann. He knocked out McCann and he got a $3,000 match in Brooklyn against Jack Herman. He knocked out Herman and went home to South America with his earnings.

Now Firpo is coming back and he'll be talking in large thousands. He's a "card" at the most opportune time when the heavyweight class is coming into its greatest period of activity in years.

Firpo is signed to meet Bill Brennan in Madison Square Garden in March and he must be getting $25,000 as his end, if he is getting a cent.

A fortunate young man is Luis Firpo.

He knocked out Sailor Maixted, Joe McCann, Jack Herman and then polished off poor Jim Tracey, the Australian, who was so poor in this country that he couldn't get a match. Now, after this great start, Firpo is being groomed for a crack at Dempsey.

Firpo is a "card". He's a new figure in a class where the faces are all old and too familiar. He's a giant and a cave-man in looks and actions. He can hit like a locomotive and he can take a tremendous wallop. Perhaps he has the makings of a great fighter, but right now it is the circus appeal that is pushing him to the top.

When he returned from South America, George Lawrence, Tracey's manager, said he thought Firpo would make a good match with Dempsey. Of course, any manager who has one of his boys knocked over, likes to magnify the ability of the knocker-over. Lawrence, however, said that Firpo had improved greatly since he went back home. He took two or three sparring partners down with him and he has been working hard.

He suggested that two or three build-up matches with Gibbons, Johnson, Brennan or Willard would put him right in line for a title bout with Dempsey.

Firpo has the business qualifications for a champion. In these days it must be remembered too, the champion is primarily a business man. When Firpo returned to South America he proceeded quietly to get a license from the government officials for the Firpo-Tracey fight and when the time came to talk business, he sold the permit to the promoter for $28,000.

Jack Kearns couldn't work any faster than that any Kearns can move.

Dempsey is a very poor business man—like John D. The boys were saying recently that Dempsey would have to fight someone this summer, as he was in need of cash. The boys were saying those things until they read in the paper that the heavyweight champion had bought $250,000 worth of apartment houses in California.

Dempsey is badly in need of money—that is, if he cannot live on about $10,000 a week.

Actual earnings in the ring are the smallest sources of the heavyweight champion's income.

Dempsey gets enough to keep the ordinary family in luxury from allowing billboards and street car signs to say that a certain kind of tonic made him the champion.

This Milroy high school basketball team turned out county champions here Saturday night, when they defeated the Moscow high school team in the final game of the county tourney, by the score of 29 to 11, leading the Moscow team at all times.

Milroy earned the right to play in the final game by defeating Webb in the semi-finals in the afternoon, by the score of 35 to 15, and Moscow defeated Rushville in the semi-finals 22 to 17.

In the final game at night, Moscow was completely outclassed from the start, and did not put up the game that they did when they defeated Rushville in the afternoon. The game had probably worn them down while on the other hand Milroy had won two comparatively easy contests before reaching the finals.

Moscow failed to register a field goal in the first half, which ended with Milroy leading 17 to 4. Readmond and Cowan on the Milroy team stood out, while Gosnell and Tillison played best for Moscow.

In the curtain raiser the Rushville high school girls won an exciting contest from the Milroy girls, by the score of 18 to 14. The score was tied in the last half, but the locals counted a couple of times from the field, which put them in the lead. Viola Jay for the locals, scored all 9 field goals.

Another curtain raiser, which attracted attention, was the one played between the team of Rush county coaches, and Rushville high school students. The Hancock county coaches did not appear, and most of the Rushville second team players volunteered to meet the coaches, and defeated them, 22 to 12, although the coaches were leading 10 to 9 at the first half.

Hittin' 'Em & Missin' 'Em

BOTH OF 'EM DESERVE
MUCH CREDIT

Milroy, county champions, played a good game in the final tilt Saturday night, when they swamped Moscow. The losers didn't look like the same team which defeated Rushville in the afternoon, but anyway the Moscow team deserves a great deal of credit for beating Rushville.

CLEAR OUT O' LUCK

Old Dr. Cone must have left this town Saturday afternoon, because Rushville was clear off on hitting the basket again, and missed enough chances in the closing minutes of the Moscow game, to have won out by a big margin.

AND SO WAS WEBB

Even Webb, the team which was expected to make a big showing, failed to have their usual good luck on hitting the basket, in their game with Milroy.

WE'RE HOPING FOR THE BEST

The next big stop here, which will be the last stop, is the sectional tourney, March 2 and 3. Hittin' 'em is hoping that Milroy meets Connersville, and knocks 'em off.

Substitutions, Milroy Carr for Readmond, Kinnett for Swain, Richey for Kinnett; Webb, Talbert for Gibson. Field goals, Readmond, Green 4, Swain 7, Richey, Cowan 2, Talbert, Osborn 2. Foul goals, Talbert 9 out of 16, Swain 2 out of 4, Cowan 3 out of nine. First half Milroy 16, Webb 8.

RUSHVILLE DRAWS A BYE

In the list of drawings for the regional tourneys, the Rushville sectional winner goes to Ft. Wayne, and will have to play only one game. The local victor will be pitted against the winner of the Huntington sectional. Of the eighteen teams going to the two northern regionals, one set drew a bye, on account of the uneven number, and Rushville was one of the sectionals. Other teams will have to play two games at the northern regionals.

The next game for Rushville is with Cathedral of Indianapolis. Work hard this week gang, and coax that ball a little in finding the right place.

VIOLA, YOU TELL 'EM HOW IT IS DONE

Hittin' 'em nominates Viola Jay as a contender for any all-county team. She caged 9 field goals in the girl's game for Rushville.

PLAYER HAD A TWO-FOLD PURPOSE

B. Hungerford, the rotund forward on the Moscow team, weighing not less than 250 pounds, makes use of his size when the team gets in a close pinch. One of the lighter forwards would jump on his back, and being on a level with the basket, would not have any trouble in putting the ball through. Milroy was on to the trick, and Moscow attempted it a couple of times but failed. In a game recently at Westport, Moscow scored 5 field goals in that manner. It is not against the rules, as long as the player does not touch the rim of the basket with his hands.

Whenever Hungerford would get the ball, it was almost an impossible thing for a player to guard him. They couldn't put their arms half way around him. One player said that it was like guarding a silo.

New Salem, with the three Wilsons, K. Wilson, F. Wilson and S. T. Wilson, could not stand the pace with Moscow in the opening game of the tourney. K. Wilson starred with 11 of the 13 points.

Rush county is extremely weak on forwards this season. Baker of Manilla, who scored 7 field goals in the game against Rushville, was the only real scoring forward in the tourney.

BE RID OF THAT ACHE

If you're a sufferer with lame back, backache, dizziness, nervousness and kidney disorders, why don't you try the remedy that your own neighbors recommend. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. Joseph Doll, 521 W. Third St., Rushville, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on when I was troubled with kidney complaint and have found them a reliable remedy. At times my back was weak and lame and I had to remain in bed. It ached intensely through the small part and my kidneys were irregular in action. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they have never failed to relieve me."

Mrs. Doll gave the above statement August 26, 1915, and on November 1, 1920, she added: "I still have the same high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills. I use them occasionally as a kidney tonic always with satisfactory results."

Washington, Feb. 5.—Official and political Washington is preparing for a long and carefree vacation far from Pennsylvania Avenue as soon as congress dies March 3.

President Harding will be among the first to leave Washington for a vacation. He expects to go to Florida on March 5 for a stay of several weeks. Later in the summer he hopes to make a trip to Alaska and visit the western states.

Among the other vacation trips are: Panama, Jamaica, Havana and other tropical resorts (with stop over privileges possible) for a considerable number of congressmen, who will sail aboard the naval transport Henderson on March 5 to witness the joint maneuvers of the United States fleet.

The cost for first class accommodations will be $1.50 per day.

Chilean points in South America for Secretary of State Hughes and a delegation, including Senators Kellogg and Pomerene, who retire from the senate March 4. They will attend the fifth Pan-America conference.

All forest regions, including New England, Pacific and gulf coasts and any other places trees can be grown for a committee of five senators—McNary, Moses, Couzens, Fletcher and Harrison. They are to hunt favorable spots for forest reservations.

Europe, via the liner Liviathan, for a number of members of congress who will be the guests of the shipping board on the giant vessel after its re-conditioning at a cost of $8,000,000. The trip is warranted strictly dry.

Hawaii, the Philippines, Porto Rico and all important army posts by Secretary of War Weeks.

Inspection of Tea Pot Dome, Wyoming, by a senate committee, accompanied by geologists to determine whether Uncle Sam's oil is being properly taken care of in the naval reserve there.

A possible tour of the territories, including Hawaii, the Philippines and Alaska, by the house territories committee.

"Uncle Joe" Cannon is planning one of the best junkets of all and it won't cost the government a cent. He is going fishing.

Gary Citizen Declares Tanlae Has Made Him One of Healthiest Men In Town

"When it comes to giving a man a solid foundation of health and strength, Tanlae just can't be beat," said John Keukechi, well-known carpenter and contractor, of 1720 Pennsylvania Ave, Gary, Ind., recently.

"Besides picking up fifteen pounds taking Tanlae, it made me so well and strong I can now keep pace with the speediest carpenters on any contract.

"Indigestion had been hammering away at my system until my appetite was almost gone. I was losing weight fast, and was all run-down. I had a burning feeling in my stomach, gas well-nigh smothered me, there were racking pains all through my body, and at times I was terribly weak, nervous and dizzy.

"Well, sir, it looked like my troubles were going to 'floor' me and it was like finding gold to run across Tanlae. Why, my ailments are all gone now, and eat heartily, sleep fine, and call myself one of the healthiest men in this town today."

Tanlae is sold by all good druggists.

Attack Started Against Department
of Conservation When Bill to
Abolish it is Presented

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 5.—An attack was launched against the department of conservation in the Indiana legislature today.

Representative John W. Kitch, democrat, of Plymouth, introduced a bill which would abolish the department, which is composed of separate divisions of forestry, entomology, geology and other divisions.

Many factions have struck at the conservation department as "another useless commission" and the measure represents the culmination of their efforts. The department was endorsed by the Republican Editorial Association in a resolution and it is known that Governor McCray regards its work highly.

An important step in prohibition was taken by the house when it adopted a resolution presented by Representative J. Glenn Harris to combine all pending legislation, seeking to make dry laws more strict, into one bill and dispose of it as a special order of business Thursday. Several measures along the lines of more stringent prohibition have received senate approval and are now awaiting action in the house. Among them are two that would make a thirty-day sentence for bootlegging compulsory on first offense and require imprisonment of persons who operate whiskey stills.

Every milk dealer in Indiana would be required to pay and charge uniform prices under provisions of a bill introduced by Representative Murray of Helmer. The measure was the outgrowth of an anti-trust suit filed against dealers of dairy products in Indiana, by Attorney General U. S. Lesh, a decision in which was handed down today.

Representative Wyson of Indianapolis introduced a bill to make the Indiana National guard laws conform with the national defense act.

The house was in a short morning session. The senate did not convene.

HOLDS THERE IS NO MILK TRUST IN STATE

Judge Linn Hay Rules Against Attorney General in Suit For Receivership of 35 Defendants

MILK PRICES NOT TOO HIGH

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 5.—Efforts of Attorney General U. S. Lesh to break a "milk trust" alleged to exist in Indiana, failed today when Judge Linn Hay in superior court here decided in favor of thirty-five defendants of milk product companies.

The court decided that prices of milk and its products are not high in Indiana as compared with other states.

The state through the attorney general had asked an injunction to prevent carrying on an alleged conspiracy entered into between the companies in restraint of trade and to boost prices, forfeiture of franchise and an appointment of receivers to wind up their affairs.

According to the decision, the state failed to prove charges that the companies through the Indiana manufacturers of dairy products, a central organization, designed to restrain and control products distribution and sale of milk, cream and other products and to arbitrarily control prices at an unreasonably high level.

"Restriction of products has been a great evil in most combinations," the judge said, "but milk products in Indiana have been increased."

REMONSTRATORS ARE HEARD

Evidence on City Street Paving Will be Presented to Commission

The hearing on the remonstrance against the paving of parts of Harrison and Eighth streets under the three mile road law was heard in the court house Saturday, by Walter Bridges, a representative of the state board of tax commissioners. He will present the evidence to the members of the commission and a decision is expected within two weeks. The hearing began at ten o'clock and was not concluded until two o'clock.

The remonstrance was sustained once before on the plea of the remonstrators that road building material was too high. It is proposed to cement Harrison street from First to Eighth and Eighth street from Harrison to the Fort Wayne road.

ST. MIHIEL DUE IN PORT WEDNESDAY

Plowing Through Stormy Seas, Army Transport Is Bringing Last of A. E. F. Home

WILL DOCK AT SAVANNAH, GA.

Toughest Weather Atlantic Has To Offer Recalls To Doughboys How Tough War Really Is

(Copyright, 1923, by United Press)

Aboard S. S. St. Mihiel, (500 miles from home), Feb. 5.—(By Radio)—Plowing through stormy seas and buffeted by wintry gales, the transport St. Mihiel which took so many doughboys over to France for the great war, today is bringing the last of them home.

Wednesday, if all goes well, the St. Mihiel will slide into dock at Savannah, in the teeth of the stormiest welcome the old south can produce, one that promises to make the blast of the Atlantic seem a mere whisper.

The Eighth Infantry, combat troops, Colonel Walter T. Bates commanding will be recipient of Georgia's enthusiastic welcome home. The enthusiasm will be reciprocal.

After the pleasant days in the sunny Rhineland, a week of the roughest weather the Atlantic had in store has just recalled to the last of the A. E. F., how tough war really is. As for the German wives and the one German mother-in-law that the boys are bringing back, their discomfort is only compensated by their eagerness to see the land of the free.

Twenty-four little German-American kiddies, too young to be sea sick are perhaps the least uncomfortable of the St. Mihiel's passengers.

Aside from the weather, which was exceedingly rough for two days in particular the home voyage the A. of O. has been pleasant and without incident. Nine hundred and eight officers and men make up the contingent.

COMMENT ON WHAT CENTER TOWNSHIP MEN SAY OF JESUS LEADS THE COUNTY

W. McClean Work Refers to Views of Common People Regarding Christ's Life on Earth

PREACHES 3 SERMONS SUNDAY

Largest Audience Which Has Attended U. P. Special Services Present Sunday Night

Before the largest audience that has yet been in attendance upon the services, the Rev. W. McClean Work of Richmond preached Sunday night at the First United Presbyterian church on the subject, "What Men Say About Jesus." It was the third address by the speaker for the day. In the morning he spoke on "God's Daily Press" and in the afternoon gave a patriotic sermon lecture on "The Hand of God in American History."

Mr. Work said in part, Sunday night: "Tonight I would have you think with me of what men say about Jesus, what they do not say about him and what they say they do not understand. Not men of this time, not theologians, not historians but the man on the street today."

"They say first of all that he was a man of perfect poise, unmoved alike by the flattery of the triumphal all entry and insults of Pilate's judgement hall."

"They say he did not write a volume and that his record would not fill more than a modern pamphlet, and yet no man has ever had one tithe of the influence upon the human race."

"They say he has a universal appeal. Everyone knows that Mohammed was for the Arab, Confucius for the Chinese, Zoroaster for the Hindu, but this Jesus has attracted all men of all times and conditions and races and nations."

"They say he grows larger as men draw nearer to him. Pilate says I find no fault in him. Even his enemies say that he speaks as one having authority and the common people heard him gladly."

"They say he had power to foretell the future. They say he had power to change life."

"And they do not say that he ever sinned, that he leaned upon an organization financial, politically or military, that he showed any signs of being in a hurry although he had but three years for his earthly ministry, that he ever made a misstatement, that he worked his life toward a dramatic climax."

"And they say there are many things about him we cannot understand. We cannot fathom a man who has all power under God and yet does not have a cent to his name or home, they cannot understand one who had power from a boy's scanty lunch to feed thousands and yet would be so frugal as to gather up the fragments. They have no explanation of how a man of holy life should be a friend of sinners or a man of fine sensibilities should surround himself with rude fisher folk when he might have had Nicodemus the ruler or the rich Joseph of Arimathea."

"These are the things the man on the street is saying about Jesus but he is asking, 'Whom say ye that I am?'"

Tonight Mr. Work will preach on, "What Christianity Is!" The services begin at 7:30.

Makes Best Record in Attendance During First Semester, Scoring 99 Per Cent

AVERAGE IN COUNTY 96.8%

County Board of Education Meets This Afternoon to Discuss Commencement Dates

In the twelve consolidated schools of Rush county, the Center township school held the record for attendance during the first semester, when 99 percent was scored, according to figures compiled by County school superintendent, B. D. Farthing, for the first school semester.

The general average for the county for consolidated schools was 96.8 percent. The Moscow school in reality made about as good a showing on account of the larger number of pupils enrolled, with 177 as against 113 in the Center school. Neither school had any tardies, nor did the Rushville township (Webb) school.

The county board of education was holding their February meeting this afternoon in the superintendent's office, and some of the things which were to be discussed were commencement dates and speakers; getting a line on teachers for next year; considering some points in regard to elementary classification of schools in the county; consideration of the school libraries of the county; reading circle books for the schools and music memory contest.

The report for the first school semester, shows that there are 2079 pupils in the consolidated schools, which includes the grades and high schools of the twelve townships. (Gings ranks lowest of the schools with 2 percent of 90.8, but even at that the figures for attendance are above most of the schools in the state this year.

The Moscow, Center and Webb schools made the best records for tardiness, as neither school lost any time in tardies. Milroy topped the list with tardies when 89 pupils were late and caused the school to lose 1160 minutes. There were a total of 283 tardies in the schools during the semester, with a combined total of 4,067 minutes, or over 67 hours time.

The Carthage school has the largest enrollment with 300, and Milroy is close second with 289. The smallest number enrolled in a consolidated school is at Center and Gings, which have 113 pupils each.

The following table compiled to give information as sent out in the attendance report for the consolidated schools and a report to be published tomorrow will include the one room and two room schools which are in this county.

FIRE FROM COAL OIL STOVE

Discovered in Attic At Walter Hubbard's Home Sunday

Fire, believed to have been caused from a coal oil heating stove in an attic room at the residence of Walter Hubbard, 223 West Second street, did damage to the extent of possibly $150 Sunday shortly before noon. The blaze was discovered eating its way underneath the flooring in the attic, and the upper part of the house was filled with smoke. The stove had been extinguished, but it is thought that a leak may have caused the fire. The rug and interior of the room were damaged. The fire department answered a telephone call, and the blaze was extinguished with chemicals.

Richard Washburn Child, American Observer at Lausanne, Offers Mediation

FRENCH FOLLOW BRITISH

Leave Conference on Near East Affairs and Italians May do Likewise Tuesday

Lausanne, Feb. 5.—Richard Washburn Child, American observer at the Lausanne conference, brought to bear all possible influence upon the Turkish delegation today to persuade them to sign the peace treaty.

There was some optimism among secretaries and observers that the parley might be resumed through the American ambassador's efforts, but the French followed example of the British and left Lausanne after Ismet Pasha had definitely refused to agree to the allies terms.

Ambassador Child offered mediation and was in conference with Turkish delegates.

Ismet Pasha, Turk delegate, also attempted peaceful maneuvers, seeking to avoid responsibility for the breakdown that followed his refusal to sign the peace treaty presented by the allies.

Marquis Curzon, head of the British delegation, went to Paris last night, quitting the parley after the allies and American observer Child had pleaded vainly with the Turks to sign.

The Italian delegation, headed by Garroni, was the only one remaining, but was expected to leave Tuesday. It was one of the chief tasks of saying the Mudania armistice pact will remain in effect "until Lausanne ends". He pretends not to recognize that the British and French withdrawal is tantamount to collapse of the conference.

Still arguing details of the proposed treaty, the Turk insisted allied proposals regarding foreign judiciary are unacceptable because they retain the spirit of the capitulations. It was one of the chief tasks of the present parley to find a substitute for the capitulations.

The Italians gave indications they would follow the British example and bring the conference to an end, letting Turkey take full responsibility in the eyes of the world if trouble in the Near East ensued.

NO JURY CALLED UNTIL FRIDAY

Claim Of William E. Watson For $15-436.60 Against John J. Veatch Estate Is Dismissed

The February term of court got under way this morning, and several matters were disposed of when the docket was called. The jury will probably not be used until Friday, and there is a possibility of their services not being needed until next week.

The claim amounting to $15,436.60 filed by William E. Watson, against D. E. Barnett, administrator of the estate of John J. Veatch, was dismissed this morning by the plaintiff.

The Republican Printing Company, an Ohio corporation, also dismissed their suit on an account against D. W. Nolan, in which the plaintiff's demand was for $50.

The case of the United States tire company against Walter T. Cummings of Falmouth, a suit on an account demanding $1,000, also was dismissed this morning in the court.

The case of Fannie Stonecipher against William McClery, et al., a complaint to quiet title, was heard, and the defendant defaulted. The court awarded the plaintiff judgement on the petition, and the land was given a good title.

In a divorce suit pending of Oakley Sampson against Mabella, the defendant had filed a petition for allowance and attorney fees and this morning by agreement the plaintiff will pay $5 a week allowance, and also $15 for defense attorney fees.

Another case filed recently of the Myers Brothers Company against Thomas G. Kelly, a complaint on a note demanding $125, was dismissed by the plaintiff in court this morning.

Several other matters of minor importance such as filing answers, cross complaints and various motions, came before the court, and most of the first day's work in open court was finished by noon today.

Light Snow May Also Accompany Rise In Temperature, According To Weather Man

MERCURY LOWEST FOR YEAR

Warmer weather is in sight, according to the prediction of the weather bureau, which says that a light snow will probably follow with the rising temperature and cloudy weather tonight. The coldest Saturday night was 4 degrees above zero, according to Elwood Kirkwood, at Maury, and the coldest reached last night was six above.

The mercury had a tendency to go upward today, although the wind was chilly and disagreeable. The drop in temperature began Saturday, and the last two days have been the coldest this year, as January was one of the mildest on record.

The report on the prediction for warmer weather states that this area will be mostly cloudy tonight and Tuesday, with warmer weather, followed by possibly light snow. The lowest tonight is predicted not to fall below 18 degrees.

COLD WAVE MOVES SOUTH

Washington, Feb. 5.—With the cold wave travelling southward somewhat higher temperature will prevail Tuesday in practically all northern sections east of the Mississippi while colder weather will grip the south the weather bureau stated today.

THE SPOTTED POLAND CHINAS THE OUT-CROSS BREED OF HOGS

By Irene Reeve

The blood lines of SPOTTED POLAND CHINA of today are made up from animals recorded in the present day Poland China Records, from other animals conforming to our requirements in description, supposed to carry a greater or lesser percent of original Poland China blood, and from a pair of hogs imported from England, known as Gloucester Old Spots. Poland Chinas are descendants from a hog produced by the mixing of at least six separate and distinct breeds by the pioneer farmers of Ohio.

The common hog that roamed at will through the almost unbroken forests in those days, furnished the foundation from which was developed what was later known as the "Warren County Hog".

The sturdy farmers of this section wished to develop their common hog and lost no opportunity to cross them with other breeds whenever they could secure one by importation or from other States in the East.

The "Russian Hog" was one of the breeds to be brought into this section, and history tells us he was a large, white hog, rather coarse, with great length and very prolific.

Another was the "Byfield" which came from Massachusetts, and which was also a large pure white hog.

Just about a century ago the first importation of a breed called "Big China" was brought into this section of Ohio. They are described as a hog mostly white in color, but having some sandy and black spots. They were good feeders matured very early, and being prepotent impressed these characteristics on their offspring.

It is also known that a number of individuals of a breed called "Irish Graziers" which was a reddish or sandy colored hog, were brought and used.

An importation of "Big English Berkshires" was made into this territory about the year 1835 and it is quite certain that all of the black, or practically all, in the Poland China Hogs of today came from crossing the "Big English Berkshires" with the "Warren County Hog".

From this time on no other breeds were introduced, but we already have the blood of at least six separate and distinct breeds coursing through the veins of this wonderful "Warren County Hog" when about thirty years later, in 187, the National Swine Breeders' convention met in Indianapolis and gave these hogs the official name of "Poland Chinas".

They were in great demand, and immediately following this official meeting at least three record associations were organized to record the Poland China.

What has happened in the past forty-two years is common knowledge to many but it is a very interesting story and an object lesson in live stock breeding, of great value to follow the history of this hog, in whose veins was the blood of so many different breeds, which naturally made him a "bundle of possibilities" when he was scattered throughout the country into the hands of so many men differing widely in ideals and purposes and surrounded by such great differences in environment, such a climate, food, and range conditions in the East, West, North and South.

It is the object of this little article to merely state facts and not discuss the merits or demerits of the Poland-China over any other breeds or hogs or any particular type or color of the Poland-China over any other.

It is a fact however, that in the

Corn Belt these hogs which were originally a large, black and white spotted, heavy boned prolific hog of considerable length, were gradually molded into a smaller and shorter and more quickly maturing type by selection and the heavy feeding of grain in feed lots to the exclusion of the natural range conditions which supplied an abundance of protein in the way of grasses, roots and nuts of the forest, so conducive of a larger growth. This not only reduced the size of the Poland-China, but as they grew smaller they became less prolific, until in many localities there were so many complaints that it grew into an almost continual protest by the farmers that the breeders were getting the Poland-China bred down to fine.

This criticism, oft repeated in many places during the last ten or fifteen years served to set men thinking, and some of the far seeing ones in many localities who preferred the original type of the larger spotted and more prolific Poland have set about in earnest to reproduce and preserve their favorite.

Breeders almost everywhere have emphasized the fact that there is a general tendency throughout the country to return to the old type of Poland by calling attention in their advertisements and otherwise to the medium type to the large type and to Spotted Poland Chinas, a distinction never made until within the last few years. Although there are some breeders of recorded Polands in other States who have preserved the type of the original big boned, spotted hog to a greater or less degree, such is not the fact in Indiana, and in most cases the herds of Spotted-Polands in Indiana have been preserved and reproduced from this old type of hogs, some of which had not been kept recorded. There are a number of well known breeders in Central Indiana who have been breeding these hogs to the exclusion of all others for many years, and they have become so popular and widely known that in the opinions of most men in this section they are not only superior as the most profitable pork producer and all around farmer's hog, to any other breed, but also to any other type of Polands.

This gave rise to a general demand for an organization to record and push the big-boned prolific Spotted-Poland as a separate and distinct family of hog which resulted in the organization of The Record Association, which was incorporated under the laws of Indiana.

In recording the foundation animals, there were two hogs imported from England, known in that country as "Gloucester Old Spots". They were recorded under the name of the King and Queen of England and they have added a wonderful stimulant to the Spotted Poland China breed.

FIRST, it gave a distinct appearance of energy, vim, up-and-doing all the time, and a soft, glossy coat which is very attractive.

SECOND, they added 100 percent to the breeders type, long body, not so much spring of rib, high off the ground, resulting in big litters and larger pigs.

THIRD, it injected into the herds of oldtime breeders new blood of the type he had long had in his mind that he wanted.

FOURTH you will please remember this is the first new blood or the first out-cross that has been made in the Poland China family since 1835. Now then, since the Poland Chinas have been bred all these years without an out-cross with a minutes' thought you can see what a wonderful stimulant this new and fresh blood would be in their veins.

The Spotted-Polands are very prolific, farrowing from nine to fifteen pigs as a rule. They usually weigh from 400 to 800 pounds at maturity. Evenness of litters, or the absence of runts is a matter of common knowledge, and frequent comment. The mothers are great sucklers, the pigs exceedingly thrifty and very rapid growers. Being very heavy weighters their weight is often, or almost always under guessed. They have good length, heavy bone, with rather a large ear and tail and a little coarser hair than the smaller types, and by reason of the contrast in color of the black and white which makes up their coat they make an unusually attractive appearance in the feed lot and never fail to attract attention.

The breeders of these great hogs have absolute confidence in their superiority and ability to win a foremost place wherever hogs are raised on real merit.

ROTH EXONERATED OF BLAME FOR ROBBERY

Attempt Will be Made to Gain Freedom For Orange Township Man Serving Sentence

ORPH GEORGE IN CONFESSION

Frank Roth, 17 years old, of Milroy, Rush county, sentenced in the Shelby circuit court for a term of 10 to 21 years' imprisonment in the Indiana reformatory, on a charge of assault and battery with intent to commit robbery, has been exonerated from all blame in the holdup and attempted robbery of Hayes Marshall at Blue Ridge, on Jan. 2, 1922, in a signed confession by Orph George, companion of Roth in the hold-up, who is also serving a sentence of 10 to 21 years in the case.

Scores of names have been signed to a petition being circulated in Milroy and vicinity for the release of Roth from prison, as a result of the confession. At the time that Roth and George pleaded guilty to the charges the court refused to extend clemency to Roth, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roth, of Orange township, very prominent residents. Hundreds of petitions had been presented to the court for leniency in the case of Roth, but Judge Blair, contending this duty was to uphold the law and pass the heavy sentence.

Roth and George were both wounded in the attempted robbery, when Mr. Marshall opened fire with a revolver as they ordered him to hold up his hands. Mr. Marshall was closing his store in Blue Ridge, a short time after midnight on Sunday Jan. 29, and he carried the proceeds from the day's business in a sack, which the hold-ups sought.

Earle Williams in

"THE MAN FROM DOWNING STREET"

A distinct mystery element that is bound to hold and surprise any audience. A picture with a cast of high calibre.
A delightful film of romance, adventure and mystery, against a background of India.

Earle Williams in a role written especially for him. A film of which one can truly say—"I wish there were six more reels"—so interesting is each scene.

THE ROYAL LAW:—If ye fulfil the royal law according to the Scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well; but if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convicted of the law as transgressors.—James 2: 8, 9.

Opinions on Art Differ

Isadora Duncan is a revolutionist and is glad of it.

She is against prohibition and the world in general that lies west of Paris and Moscow.

She prefers to live in Russia than in the United States.

She says the capitalist newspapers ruined her tour and she had to borrow money to get back home.

This is the best recommendation for the good sense of the American people that we have read for some time.

If sentiment in America is such that a Red of Miss Duncan's strip can not be successful on a tour in nude dances under the guise of art, there is a most wholesome atmosphere returning to the American stage.

If the people of the United States

are going to insist on improvement in the morals of those who entertain them, they should be applauded. If Miss Duncan's dances are art, as she admits, then art is in for a hard winter. She says the people of this country don't want art, but fortunately our ideas of art differ.

Miss Duncan's dance was stopped in Indianapolis and incidentally our opinion of Mayor Shank has been raised since the Russian dancer expressed her real opinions when she started back to the land of Emma Goldman and Bill Haywood.

The Memorial Day Bill

It is doubtful if patriotism is tangible enough to permit of treatment by legislation. No man or woman will ever be more patriotic because of a law which says they shall be.

If the legislature passes a law prohibiting the annual 500-mile race at the Indianapolis automobile speedway, it will not erase the desire in the hearts of thousands of people to see the race. Without the attraction of a race on Memorial Day, it is improbable that any of those who patronize the race would attend a patriotic service.

So little would be gained by stopping the race. The impulse to attend would still be in the hearts of people who are in the habit of attending and who enjoys witnessing the contest.

Opponents of the auto derby have no particular objection to the event except that they view it as a desecration of the national holiday. It does not offend their sense of moral values. Their only complaint is that commercialized sport should not be permitted on the day set aside by the nation to honor the heroic dead.

Little would be accomplished towards the desired end—a deeper expression of feeling for those who sacrificed their lives for their country, by the passing of the law.

FIFTEEN YEARS
AGO TODAY

(Daily Republican, Feb. 5, 1908)

A veritable blizzard passed over Rushville Tuesday night and from eight o'clock on the sleet and snow fell in blowing sheets.

Among the many who were victims of falls today on the ice was City Marshall Price, who received quite a painful injury.

Democrats of Sixth district will hold a harmony banquet and talk-fest in this city tonight.

Mrs. Horatio Havens left today for Birmingham, Ala., to join her husband, who is employed in that city.

Miss Anna Bohannon, deputy county auditor, left Tuesday for a two weeks stay at French Lick where she will take treatment.

On next Friday evening the basketball team will contest with the Richmond high school team for the honors at the Graham school building. The boys are in good condition and their hopes for victory on Friday evening are at the high water mark.

The Wi-Hub club met with Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Parsons in North Main street Tuesday evening.

The city council met Tuesday evening in regular session with Young Havens and Kelly present, and Ball and Reynolds absent. Mayor Cowling presided at the session.

The funeral services of Mrs. Noble Braun, who died at her home in East Second street, Monday morning, were held this afternoon at one o'clock at St. Paul's M. E. church, and were largely attended by the many friends. The services were conducted by Dr. Virgil W. Tevis.

Miss Marie Clark in North Main street, has the tonsillitis.

Walter Peters left for Detroit today where he will remain for a week in the house of The Zenner Disinfectant Company, for which company he will travel in this state.

The Greensburg Review in the write up of the district convention yesterday styled "Our Fon" Riggs as "Alphonso L. Riggs, the beau ideal statesman of Rushville." They might have added that in his official capacity as alternate to the National convention he will serve only with the sentiment which goes with a boy, "After you, my dear Alphonso."

From The Provinces

She's Too Sensible For That

Aunt Alice Robertson says she is going to be no lame duck when her term expires on March 4, but that she will go back home and go to work. That woman wouldn't be a real politician in a thousand years.

A TRAVELING LIBRARY

Muncie, Ind., Feb. 5.—The Muncie library is going to take good reading to the reader's door. A three-ton motor truck has been ordered which will make regular runs over the city, giving the public a chance to select books and have them delivered without trips to the library.

WEEKLY STORE NEWS
From ALLEN'S

Cheap foods are never worth what they cost. They are of no value as tissue builders—they merely fill you up.

Real economy in foods lies in buying goods that have nutritive value and possess a flavor that makes them palatable and enjoyable. There is no waste or extravagance in our groceries, the best foods cost no more than ordinary kinds when bought from us.

LOYALTY is not a one-sided flour. It is made to serve the whole circle of kitchen economy. Try it. We believe that you will find it better than the one you thought best.

We are receiving shipments of oysters every few days, solid pack, no water, sealed containers that guarantee their purity to the consumer.

Some folks have always objected to oleomargarine on account of the fact that it had to be colored. TINTED CHURNGOLD removes this objection, no artificial coloring is used, yet the color is practically the same as of creamery butter.

We have just cut another mammoth cheese. Last week we were asked by a salesman to write a letter to a grocer in another city telling him the number of mammoth cheese we sell each winter. The grocer had doubted the salesman's word when he told him: said it couldn't be done. Rush county folks know good cheese when they taste it.

THE ROYAL LAW.—If ye fulfil the royal law according to the Scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well; but if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convicted of the law as transgressors.—James 2: 8, 9.

Opinions on Art Differ

Isadora Duncan is a revolutionist and is glad of it.

She is against prohibition and the world in general that lies west of Paris and Moscow.

She prefers to live in Russia than in the United States.

She says the capitalist newspapers ruined her tour and she had to borrow money to get back home.

This is the best recommendation for the good sense of the American people that we have read for some time.

If sentiment in America is such that a Red of Miss Duncan's strip can not be successful on a tour in nude dances under the guise of art, there is a most wholesome atmosphere returning to the American stage.

If the people of the United States

are going to insist on improvement in the morals of those who entertain them, they should be applauded. If Miss Duncan's dances are art, as she admits, then art is in for a hard winter. She says the people of this country don't want art, but fortunately our ideas of art differ.

Miss Duncan's dance was stopped in Indianapolis, and incidentally our opinion of Mayor Shank has been raised since the Russian dancer expressed her real opinions when she started back to the land of Emma Goldman and Bill Haywood.

The Memorial Day Bill

It is doubtful if patriotism is tangible enough to permit of treatment by legislation. No man or woman will ever be more patriotic because of a law which says they shall be.

If the legislature passes a law prohibiting the annual 500-mile race at the Indianapolis automobile speedway, it will not erase the desire in the hearts of thousands of people to see the race. Without the attraction of a race on Memorial Day, it is improbable that any of those who patronize the race would attend a patriotic service.

So little would be gained by stopping the race. The impulse to attend would still be in the hearts of people who are in the habit of attending and who enjoys witnessing the contest.

Opponents of the auto derby have no particular objection to the event except that they view it as a desecration of the national holiday. It does not offend their sense of moral values. Their only complaint is that commercialized sport should not be permitted on the day set aside by the nation to honor the heroic dead.

Little would be accomplished towards the desired end—a deeper expression of feeling for those who sacrificed their lives for their country, by the passing of the law.

The Hodge-Podge
By a Paraphraser with a Soul

The opening of the tomb of King Tutankhamun in Egypt confirms the belief that there is little new in the world after all.

It's still possible to be a pioneer in something even though the wilderness has disappeared.

Once upon a time there was a person who passed a whole day without commenting on the weather.

What the world needs most is not autosuggestion but autobetter.

WINNER HERE IS SENT TO FT. WAYNE

Change Made In State Tournament
Regionals, Local Victor Drawing
A Bye

TO HAVE ONLY 1 GAME TO PLAY

Conquerer Of Rushville Sectional
Will Meet Five From Hunting-
ington Sectional

A change has been made by the Indiana High School Athletic association in the details for the final rounds of play in the basketball tournament this spring, and the winners of two sectionals at Shelbyville and Rushville will be sent to Ft. Wayne for the regional, instead of at Bloomington, as heretofore arranged.

With 48 sections this year, it was decided to enlarge the number of regionals, and a third one was made at Ft. Wayne. It also was decided to sent 18 teams to Lafayette and Ft. Wayne, leaving 12 teams at Bloomington. Two rounds of play will be made at the two northern districts, and one at Bloomington. On account of the uneven number at the northern districts, which would leave 9 teams after the first round, it was necessary to draw lots for the team drawing the bye and in this manner five teams will survive at Ft. Wayne and Lafayette and six at Bloomington, sending 16 teams to the state meet at Indianapolis.

It fell to the winner of the Rushville sectional to play the winner of the Huntington sectional in the last game at Ft. Wayne, and the winner of this game drew the bye, meaning that they will not play any more games at Ft. Wayne. At the Lafayette sectional, the winner at Anderson plays the winner at Valparaiso, and these teams drew the bye, meaning in all probability that Anderson will have only the one game to play in order to reach the state. At Bloomington, Vincennes has an easy game, and will no doubt reach the state.

ARLINGTON TO MEET SHELBYVILLE ELKS

Independent Five Coming For Game
Tuesday Night Required As One
Of Best In This Section

CURTAIN RAISER ARRANGED

The Arlington Athletic Club will meet the Shelbyville Elks Tuesday evening at Arlington. This game was moved up on account of the Ferndules of Indianapolis, who were scheduled to play the Athletic club Thursday night, could not come as they play a tourney in Indianapolis.

The Shelbyville Elks need no introduction to the basketball fans in this county as they know the Elks are considered superior to any independent team in this part of the state. The A. A. C's are fortunate in getting this team to play and are at a great deal of expense. They are urging that fans from the entire county turn out for this game.

The Shelbyville line up is practically assured to be R. Richardson, and W. Richardson, forwards; Coffman, center; Briggs, Harley and Hayes, guards. The Arlington team has been going good all season and defeated all teams from the surrounding community. One of the fastest games of the season seen at the Arlington gymnasium is expected on this night.

The A. A. C's are going into this game determined to defeat the Shelbyville team and Shelbyville will have to fight hard if they expect to overcome this kind of a spirit.

The curtain raiser will be played between Rushville Shamrocks and the Junior A. C's. This game will be called at 7:30 and the big game will start immediately afterward.

Firpo Coming For Big Money

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Feb. 5—Almost like "Tattered Tom", the poor little hero of the paper-back novel, who rose from an ash barrel to a palace, Luis Angel Firpo, South American giant is coming back to New York as somebody.

Just a year ago, Firpo slipped into New York from the Argentine looking for a meal. He thought he could fight and he wanted some of the big money he heard was being passed out to fighters in this country. Firpo wasn't known then. He couldn't get matches and his money was low, so he had to train in a cellar. Finally he got on a card in Jersey with Sailor Maixted and he got $150 for knocking out the Sailor.

That helped him a little and he got a $1,000 match with Joe McCann. He knocked out McCann and he got a $3,000 match in Brooklyn against Jack Herman. He knocked out Herman and went home to South America with his earnings.

Now Firpo is coming back and he'll be talking in large thousands. He's a "card" at the most opportune time when the heavyweight class is coming into its greatest period of activity in years.

Firpo is signed to meet Bill Brennan in Madison Square Garden in March and he must be getting $25,000 as his end, if he is getting a cent.

A fortunate young man is Luis Firpo.

He knocked out Sailor Maixted, Joe McCann, Jack Herman and then polished off poor Jim Tracey, the Australian, who was so poor in this country that he couldn't get a match. Now, after this great start, Firpo is being groomed for a crack at Dempsey.

Firpo is a "card". He's a new figure in a class where the faces are all old and too familiar. He's a giant and a caveman in looks and actions. He can hit like a locomotive and he can take a tremendous wallop. Perhaps he has the makings of a great fighter, but right now it is the circus appeal that is pushing him to the top.

When he returned from South America, George Lawrence, Tracey's manager, said he thought Firpo would make a good match with Dempsey. Of course, any manager who has one of his boys knocked over, likes to magnify the ability of the knocker-over. Lawrence, however, said that Firpo had improved greatly since he went back home. He took two or three sparring partners down with him and he has been working hard.

He suggested that two or three build-up matches with Gibbons, Johnson, Brennan or Willard would put him right in line for a title bout with Dempsey.

Firpo has the business qualifications for a champion. In these days it must be remembered too, the champion is primarily a business man. When Firpo returned to South America he proceeded quietly to get a license from the government officials for the Firpo-Tracey fight and when the time came to talk business, he sold the permit to the promoter for $28,000.

Jack Kearns couldn't work any faster than that any Kearns can move.

Dempsey is a very poor business man—like John D. The boys were saying recently that Dempsey would have to fight someone this summer, as he was in need of cash. The boys were saying those things until they read in the paper that the heavyweight champion had bought $250,000 worth of apartment houses in California.

Dempsey is badly in need of money—that is, if he cannot live on about $10,000 a week.

Actual earnings in the ring are the smallest sources of the heavyweight champion's income.

Dempsey gets enough to keep the ordinary family in luxury from allowing billboards and street car signs to say that a certain kind of tonic made him the champion.

This Milroy high school basketball team turned out county champions here Saturday night, when they defeated the Moscow high school team in the final game of the county tourney, by the score of 29 to 11, leading the Moscow team at all times.

Milroy earned the right to play in the final game by defeating Webb in the semi-finals in the afternoon, by the score of 35 to 15, and Moscow defeated Rushville in the semi-finals 22 to 17.

In the final game at night, Moscow was completely outclassed from the start, and did not put up the game that they did when they defeated Rushville in the afternoon. The game had probably worn them down while on the other hand Milroy had won two comparatively easy contests before reaching the finals. Moscow failed to register a field goal in the first half, which ended with Milroy leading 17 to 4. Readmond and Cowan on the Milroy team stood out, while Gosnell and Tillison played best for Moscow.

In the curtain raiser the Rushville high school girls won an exciting contest from the Milroy girls, by the score of 18 to 14. The score was tied in the last half, but the locals counted a couple of times from the field, which put them in the lead. Viola Jay for the locals, scored all 9 field goals.

Another curtain raiser, which attracted attention, was the one played between the team of Rush county coaches, and Rushville high school students. The Hancock county coaches did not appear, and most of the Rushville second team players volunteered to meet the coaches, and defeated them, 22 to 12, although the coaches were leading 10 to 9 at the first half.

Hittin' 'Em & Missin' 'Em

BOTH OF 'EM DESERVE
MUCH CREDIT

Milroy, county champions, played a good game in the final tilt Saturday night, when they swamped Moscow. The losers didn't look like the same team which defeated Rushville in the afternoon, but anyway the Moscow team deserves a great deal of credit for beating Rushville.

CLEAR OUT O' LUCK

Old Dr. Cone must have left this town Saturday afternoon, because Rushville was clear off on hitting the basket again, and missed enough chances in the closing minutes of the Moscow game, to have won out by a big margin.

AND SO WAS WEBB

Even Webb, the team which was expected to make a big showing, failed to have their usual good luck on hitting the basket, in their game with Milroy.

WE'RE HOPING FOR THE BEST

The next big stop here, which will be the last stop, is the sectional tourney, March 2 and 3. Hittin' 'em is hoping that Milroy meets Connersville, and knocks 'em off.

Substitutions, Milroy, Carr for Readmond, Kinnett for Swain, Richey for Kinnett; Webb, Talbert for Gibson. Field goals, Readmond, Green 4, Swain 7, Richey, Cowan 2, Talbert, Osborn 2. Foul goals, Talbert 9 out of 16, Swain 2 out of 4, Cowan 3 out of nine. First half Milroy 16, Webb 8.

RUSHVILLE DRAWS A BYE

In the list of drawings for the regional tourneys, the Rushville sectional winner goes to Ft. Wayne, and will have to play only one game. The local victor will be pitted against the winner of the Huntington sectional. Of the eighteen teams going to the two northern regionals, one set drew a bye, on account of the uneven number, and Rushville was one of the sectionals. Other teams will have to play two games at the northern regionals.

GAME HERE FRIDAY NIGHT

The next game for Rushville is with Cathedral of Indianapolis. Work hard this week gang, and coax that ball a little in finding the right place.

VIOLA, YOU TELL 'EM HOW IT IS DONE

Hittin' 'em nominates Viola Jay as a contender for any all-county team. She caged 9 field goals in the girls' game for Rushville.

PLAYER HAD A TWO-FOLD PURPOSE

B. Hungerford, the rotund forward on the Moscow team, weighing not less than 250 pounds, makes use of his size when the team gets in a close pinch. One of the lighter forwards would jump on his back, and being on a level with the basket, would not have any trouble in putting the ball through. Milroy was on to the trick, and Moscow attempted it a couple of times but failed. In a game recently at Westport, Moscow scored 5 field goals in that manner. It is not against the rules, as long as the player does not touch the rim of the basket with his hands.

Whenever Hungerford would get the ball, it was almost an impossible thing for a player to guard him. They couldn't put their arms half way around him. One player said that it was like guarding a silo.

New Salem, with the three Wilsons, K. Wilson, F. Wilson and S. T. Wilson, could not stand the pace with Moscow in the opening game of the tourney. K. Wilson starred with 11 of the 13 points.

Rush county is extremely weak on forwards this season. Baker of Manila, who scored 7 field goals in the game against Rushville, was the only real scoring forward in the tourney.

BE RID OF THAT ACHE

If you're a sufferer with lame back, backache, dizziness, nervousness and kidney disorders, why don't you try the remedy that your own neighbors recommend. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. Joseph Doll, 521 W. Third St., Rushville, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on when I was troubled with kidney complaint and have found them a reliable remedy. At times my back was weak and lame and I had to remain in bed. It ached intensely through the small part and my kidneys were irregular in action. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they have never failed to relieve me."

Mrs. Doll gave the above statement August 26, 1915, and on November 1, 1920, she added: "I still have the same high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills. I use them occasionally as a kidney tonic always with satisfactory results."

(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
Washington, Feb. 5.—Official and political Washington is preparing for a long and carefree vacation far from Pennsylvania Avenue as soon as congress dies March 3.

President Harding will be among the first to leave Washington for a vacation. He expects to go to Florida on March 5 for a stay of several weeks. Later in the summer he hopes to make a trip to Alaska and visit the western states.

Among the other vacation trips are:

Panama, Jamaica, Havana and other tropical resorts (with stop over privileges possible) for a considerable number of congressmen, who will sail aboard the naval transport Henderson on March 5 to witness the joint maneuvers of the United States fleet.

The cost for first class accommodations will be $1.50 per day.

Chilean points in South America for Secretary of State Hughes and a delegation, including Senators Kellogg and Pomerene, who retire from the senate March 4. They will attend the fifth Pan-American conference.

All forest regions, including New England, Pacific and gulf coasts and any other places trees can be grown for a committee of five senators—McNary, Moses, Couzens, Fletcher and Harrison. They are to hunt favorable spots for forest reservations.

Europe, via the liner Liviathan, for a number of members of congress who will be the guests of the shipping board on the giant vessel after its re-conditioning at a cost of $8,000,000. The trip is warranted strictly dry.

A "lakes to gulf" tour for a congressional committee charged with reporting the feasibility of a nine foot channel from Chicago to New Orleans. Senator McCormick will head this pilgrimage.

Hawaii, the Philippines, Porto Rico and all important army posts by Secretary of War Weeks.

Inspection of Tea Pot Dome, Wyoming, by a senate committee, accompanied by geologists to determine whether Uncle Sam's oil is being properly taken care of in the naval reserve there.

A possible tour of the territories, including Hawaii, the Philippines and Alaska, by the house territories committee.

"Uncle Joe" Cannon is planning one of the best junkets of all and it won't cost the government a cent. He is going fishing.

If I Sold Hardware—
MOST hardware stores have repair departments. I would have one, too. Moreover, I would make it one of the big paying departments of my business.

Through The Daily Republican Want Ads I would let people know that I repaired any number of things, from broken locks to lawn mowers. I would have boys coming to me to get their bicycles repaired. Women would call on me to fix sewing machines, electric fans and vacuum cleaners. Men would want me to repair furnaces, tools, guns and all manner of things.

They would get to depend on my store. There's nothing like making friends if you want to sell merchandise. I would make mine through The Daily Republican Want Ads.

ESTHER BECK KNOWN HERE

Bloomington Girl, Missing Three Days, Found Dying in Thicket

Miss Esther Beck of Bloomington, who was found dead in a thicket near Bloomington Sunday after having been absent from her home for three days, was well known in Rushville among local girls and women who have attended Indiana university. She was a member of the Psi Iota Xi sorority and the Kappa Kappa Gamma college sorority and by reason of the membership in the two organizations had a wide acquaintance here.

Miss Beck left her home for a walk Thursday and was never seen living after that. An organized search was conducted for her Friday and Saturday and the searchers were preparing to start out again Sunday morning when the young woman, in a dying condition, was found by a farmer eight miles west of

AMUSEMENTS

Valentino at the Princess

A splendid contrast is afforded by Wanda Hawley and Rodolph Valentino, leading woman and star of "The Young Rajah," a Paramount picture coming to the Princess Theatre Tuesday and Wednesday. Miss Hawley is a blond of the Dresden shepherdess variety; Valentino is of course, dark and Latin in appearance. They make a very pleasing picture as lovers in this strange sercen tale.

A moment of brilliancy, a mad tumult, a riot of color, of naked blades of falling figures, of victors triumphant upon the throne they have usurped—that's your tiny revolution in the small Indian state.

A night of storm and fury in New England—and an old couple ready for bed; a knocking at the door; two dark men with a child standing dripping upon the threshold; jewels poured from a bag; stacks of bank notes—a farewell and a small and miserable Hindu lad who strives to hide his tears at parting from the only friends he has known—that's the story of the adoption.

The gift of prevision—he sees his own death—his own meeting with the girl he learns to love; but he is rescued by faithful retainers in the nick of time. Then he sees in a vision the marriage of himself and his beloved in Hindu fashion—with all the wealth of gorgeous color and ceremony.

The vision of the battle in the clouds in the years of ancient Hindu history, when Arjuna, commanded by Krishna, slays father and brother for the good of the race, is one of the most striking things ever portrayed on the screen; the same for the heavenly meeting between Arjuna and Vishnu. And by clever double exposure Valentino plays both roles.

An Earl Williams Picture

"The Man From Downing Street," which will be shown at the Mystic

Theatre today and Tuesday, was written especially for Earle Williams by Clyde Westover, Lottie Horner and Florine Williams, the last named being the wife of the actor.

In "The Man From Downing Street" Mr. Williams gratifies a long cherished wish—the opportunity to play a role of an East Indian prince. Mr. Williams long was identified with the society and man-about-town type of role. He was at ease in evening clothes. Then came the strenuous role in "The Wolf." Eugene Walters exciting story of the Canadian Northwest and the star was equally at home in buckskin and furs. Since then he has had other roles as a man's man—"Bring Him In," "The Silver Car" and others. And now comes a new type of character.

"The Man From Downing Street" deals with the exciting and interesting experiences of a young secret service man commissioned to India to discover identity of a traitor who is responsible for a leakage in British code messages. Left entirely to his own resources, Williams, as Capt. Robert Kent, adopts the disguise of an Indian Rapa and sits in the exclusive army circles where the princes of India are entertained. A beautiful dancing girl—also in the secret service—plays an important role and it is largely through her aid that Kent succeeds in his mission. There is also a love story involving the dancer, and army officer's daughter and Captain Kent.

At The Rollo-Rink

Adelheid D'Vorak, the world's greatest lady roller skater, an internationally-known artist, having skated in all the principal cities in the United States, Canada and Europe, will come to the Rollo Rink, Thursday Friday and Saturday evenings of this week. There will be skating at the rink on Thursday and Saturday—evenings and on Friday evening, an old fashioned dance will be staged.

Miss D'Vorak features fancy and trick skating, including the modern ballroom dances. She has popularized the tango, fox trot, high jinks, acrobatics waltz, original ballroom jazz and the barn dance of the nations. She recently appeared at the Riverside Rink at Indianapolis and has appeared four times at Richmond.

MENACE TO EGYPTIAN REGIME

WIFE OF EGYPT'S EXILED CHIEF AND A FEW OF HER FOLLOWERS

Like Gandhi, of India, Zaghloul Pasha, of Egypt, has won a remarkable personal following and had become a real menace to the present regime in Egypt, when he was captured and sent to exile at Gibraltar. His wife, who is dearly beloved in her country and who has kept up the work of the Egyptian Nationalists during the absence of Zaghloul, received permission to join him at Gib. Photo shows her starting out, accompanied by a number of her women followers. Note the way the veil is retained, although virtually the entire face is exposed—the style now common with Moslem women of modern ideas.

Gary Citizen Declares Tanlac Has Made Him One of Healthiest Men In Town

"When it comes to giving a man a solid foundation of health and strength, Tanlac just can't be beat," said John Kenkechi, well-known carpenter and contractor, of 1720 Pennsylvania Ave, Gary, Ind., recently.

"Besides picking up fifteen pounds taking Tanlac, it made me so well and strong I can now keep pace with the speediest carpenters on any contract."

"Indigestion had been hammering away at my system until my appetite was almost gone. I was losing weight fast, and was all run-down. I had a burning feeling in my stomach, gas well-nigh smothered me, there were racking pains all through my body, and at times I was terribly weak, nervous and dizzy."

"Well, sir, it looked like my troubles were going to 'floor' me and it was like finding gold to run across Tanlac. Why, my ailments are all gone now, and eat heartily, sleep fine, and call myself one of the healthiest men in this town today."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.
